Mom and I had a really good conversation - mom does not believe there is anything to be immediately concerned with an explained some things that are happening at home, and some of the acting out that is happening. I did forward the message to mom and reminded her of social work and other supports we can provide in the fall and she knows to reach out to either me or Danyce if there's anything we can do

Thanks, team!!

Alice is going to reach out to you. She talked to all the boys. They created the folder in 5th grade. It's an empty folder. They were terrified to be in her office. She had the Gaggle conversation and they went to tech to delete the folder.

Alice checked with all the boys and they all said it was an old folder from like 5th grade. She worked with them to get it deleted from their files.

Hi Miss Atchley, I am in need of some help. I was in a relationship with [REDACTED], she is a senior. We basically split up because things just weren't working out, but now she is taking things very hard. She is saying suicidal comments and it is worrying everyone. I am not sure at all what to do in this situation but it is very scary. And I don't want to just act like this is nothing. I understand that break ups suck but she is acting very different and I actually think that she might act on her words.

thank you

Hi Mr. Litchfield.

I have been having issues with [REDACTED]. He has been targeting me for about a month. He continuously makes rude remarks about my shoes because he claims they are fake. Technically they are. He makes fun of them just about every day. It is getting on my nerves and I would really like it to stop. I didn't really want to email you, but I didn't know how else to make it stop. Today he walked past me and touched my side. I don't know if it was intentional, but it made me uncomfortable.

Thank you.

It's actually funny how motivational videos just make me depressed.

I don't know what to do anymore.

I am thinking about suicide every single day.

I've been for the past year or so.

I can't feel any power left in me. I've been drained of everything I had.

Ignoring things gets me nowhere and paying attention is further depressing.

Hello Mr. Stotz,
First and foremost, Good morning.

I recognize you are not my dean, however I have been having an issue regarding a student who has you for their dean. His name is [REDACTED] [REDACTED] He is senior. Lately, he has been issuing me threats. It has only happened twice, but I feel like it is important to bring this up to you since Saturday was the second occurrence.

The first issue was on September first over social media, Instagram to be exact. He contacted me a little while after I was catching up with an old friend, [REDACTED] who is his girlfriend. Attached is the string of messages of what happened. I believe I also have the messages from [REDACTED] and I saved onto my phone, not in a screenshot.

The second issue happened on Saturday at Homecoming. So obviously, the line was chaotic. I decided I was going to slide behind the door and hold it open for everyone. I did this so I didn't have to get shoved around. I started talking with my friends who were filtering through the doors. [REDACTED] came by and naturally I said hi to [REDACTED] because she is my friend. I then told her that I was standing out here for an hour or so and [REDACTED] responded with something along the lines of "Good, Stay out there for another hour for all I care." I was caught off guard with this and responded to him saying something like [REDACTED], I am not even doing anything wrong." and was cut off by him saying "Shut the f*** up before I kill you." or "shut up or I will kill you." It was something like that, but all I remember is the words "I will kill you."

wanted to bring this to your attention as it is both childish and uncalled for. I understand that I cannot prove anything of what he said to me, but I can prove the text messages.

The person carbon copied in this email is my dad. I wanted to make sure that my parents knew what was going on as well.

I thank you so much for your time and your consideration. This means a lot to me. Thank you

Sincerely |

Hi Officer Gregorio, I just wanted to clear up something we went over yesterday. I was kinda afraid to tell u infront of my parents. At the powderpuff game I was cold and [REDACTED] said why don't we go to my car and warm up before the next game. I said I'm good. He said clearly not let's just go to the car and warm up. So we walked to the car. He started his car up. Then he said I'm just going to move the car around so it warms up and so I can have a closer parking spot when i leave with [REDACTED]. He then got a text from [REDACTED] saying where are u going [REDACTED] replied just moving the car. Then [REDACTED] was getting all touchy. He started kissing my neck I felt very uncomfortable he said also touching my boobs. He also said come sit on my lap and I said no. He started said please. I was scared because I didn't want to fight back and have me get hurt bc he is way bigger than me. I was relieved that I got a call from my sister saying that she was here and as I started to move to get out he said just five more minutes and I said no I have to go. He said please fine just 3 minutes and I said no I have to go and I walked out of the car and I was scared. It was like non of that ever happened he totally changed his mood. He walked me until I could see my sister. I believe he said until next time. I just wanted to let you know that part too. I was afraid to tell that to you in front in my parents because I knew how they would react. Also I will not be going to the football game tonight. I don't feel safe enough to go. I want to avoid him as much as possible.

Have a great weekend.

I'm worried for my friend

From:

To:

Tony Venetico <tvenetico@district158.org>

Hello Mr.Venetico,

My name is [REDACTED]. I am a 7th grader in Marlowe, team 7-4. I am emailing to say my concern. I and my friends have a group chat together on our phones. One of the people in the group chat is named [REDACTED]. She sent a song to the group chat about suicide. As far as I know, she has sometimes had those thoughts. She has told me that she has been neglected by her parents. I do not think that this is healthy. Nobody in the right mind would text a song about suicide. Texting a song about suicide is very serious. She later said that " It was a song lyric prank, but at least I tried to" I am extremely worried. I told my mom about this. She has left a message on the Tip Line on our ID's. I tried texting her that we are there for her and that she has to go talk to someone. I even tried calling her. But it went to voicemail. I left a message saying not to do it and that we are there for her and that she should go talk to someone. Please try to do something. I am extremely worried. Please do whatever you can to help her. The last words she said on the group were " Oh, Bye..." I want my name to stay anonymous. I do not want her to get upset at me, and lose our trust.

Regards,

[REDACTED] Team 7-4

Subject: I'm worried for my friend
Hello Mr.Venetico,

My name is [REDACTED] I am a 7th grader in Marlowe, team 7-4. I am emailing to say my concern. I and my friends have a group chat together on our phones. One of the people in the group chat is named [REDACTED] She sent a song to the group chat about suicide. As far as I know, she has sometimes had those thoughts. She has told me that she has been neglected by her parents. I do not think that this is healthy. Nobody in the right mind would text a song about suicide. Texting a song about suicide is very serious. She later said that " It was a song lyric prank, but at least I tried to" I am extremely worried. I told my mom about this. She has left a message on the Tip Line on our ID's. I tried texting her that we are there for her and that she has to go talk to someone. I even tried calling her. But it went to voicemail. I left a message saying not to do it and that we are there for her and that she should go talk to someone. Please try to do something. I am extremely worried. Please do whatever you can to help her. The last words she said on the group were " Oh, Bye..." I want my name to stay anonymous. I do not want her to get upset at me, and lose our trust.

Regards,
[REDACTED] Team 7-4

Good morning,
This was from another student. She did cut herself on carving a pumpkin. She is fine.
Question though: Since this put a family that received the document on high alert and not the correct family, is there a way to also put who sent the document on the alerts?
Thanks

Hello Mrs. Mansfield,

First, I'd like to stay in study hall for half of this quarter (or sooner if I feel ready). Secondly, could you please move [REDACTED] from my table. Yesterday, I was sitting at the end of the table and he was talking to his friend (who's name I can't remember [REDACTED]). He then said to his friend, "Go kill yourself." After he said that, I ran to the bathroom and didn't come out for awhile. Before I left I gave [REDACTED] note about my whereabouts. She went to go check on me and I was in tears. [REDACTED] triggered something inside me and I was shaky. I am fine now, but I would still like it if he could kindly be removed. After [REDACTED] and I came back from the bathroom, she chewed him out for what he had said and told him that the words he says can hurt people without him knowing. His mouth is foul some days, most days, a lot and I know he is upsetting other people. Sorry for any inconveniences

(Also, I don't know if we are switching tables for the quarter yet or not, if we are then I am pretty sure it won't be a problem),

Thank you

Dear Mrs. Skubak,

I don't know what to do, but this could be an emergency thing or just a drama thing. This girl named [REDACTED] is posting stuff on Instagram and at first it was about people being jealous of her or mean to her, but now it's about her wanting to commit suicide. It might be for attention, but it gets really concerning. I thought that since she is a freshmen and your her counselor, you would know what to do. The tip line doesn't work on my phone so I had no one else to tell.

Have a good night,

[REDACTED]

Dear Mrs. Skubak,

I don't know what to do, but this could be an emergency thing or just a drama thing. This girl named [REDACTED] is posting stuff on Instagram and at first it was about people being jealous of her or mean to her, but now it's about her wanting to commit suicide. It might be for attention, but it gets really concerning. I thought that since she is a freshmen and your her counselor, you would know what to do. The tip line doesn't work on my phone so I had no one else to tell.

Have a good night,

This student has been connecting with our school counselor for the past month or so. This document appears to be song lyrics or poetry; nevertheless, he will meet with the counselor today to discuss. He's also new to D158 this year, so I will give him an overview of Gaggle and how we receive this content.

Dear Mrs. Miller,

When I got home today I didn't talk to my mom at all. I wanted to say hello or something, but I didn't. I went right to my room and cried for about 10 minutes. After that when my dad came home, he came in and talked to me. Asked me why I am feeling this way. Some of the stuff he said just made me feel even worse because he has told me this multiple times. I didn't yell or argue about it, but now I haven't eaten since last night. The only thing I heard in my head was just pure sadness. I still don't have a phone and that is one of the only things that has helped me in the past. I took a nap when I got home and I dreamed about a way to hurt myself by using a knife to slit my wrist. Most likely, I will not be able to sleep tonight. If it is possible, please leave me an email back ASAP.

Bullying Incident

To:

Tony Venetico <tvenetico@district158.org>, Rita Castans
<rcastans@district158.org>, Tamra Schuring <tschuring@district158.org>

Good afternoon,

I just had an extremely traumatic incident that occurred on the bus this afternoon. Our bus doesn't have enough space for all of the kids, so we have to triple up in seats. The 8th graders in the back usually hog the seats all to themselves, and my bus driver, Mr. Dave, literally has to force his way back there to make them scoot over to make room. Today, I was one of the ones who had to go back there, which I didn't want to because I usually sit up front to escape all the drama. They all really hate me, and they were torturing me while I sat back there. I had to force my way into a seat with [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]'s brother, and they both have bullied me for the longest time. The other people back there were [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] The only people who were bullying me were [REDACTED], and although I am not 100% sure, I think someone may have been recording it. When I tried to force my way into the seat, [REDACTED] started screaming "NO NO NO!" at the top of their lungs.

I was already mad that I had to sit with them, so I just forced my way in.

Then people were making comments. [REDACTED] accused me of being "An autistic, transgender bitch", which hurts me because I do have Asperger's.

Then, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] proceeded to crumple up post-it notes and chuck them at me. Only 3 of them hit me, but I caught one, and I went to chuck it at [REDACTED]'s face, which I regret doing. However, it just bounced off the ceiling and landed somewhere on the bus floor. [REDACTED] also had a ton of candy on him, and he was throwing the wrappers at me. I am not sure who started it, but someone took [REDACTED]'s water bottle and started to throw it around the bus. When it came to me, I dropped in in [REDACTED]'s seat because I thought it was his.

I realized that it wasn't, and before he got his hands on it again I handed it back to [REDACTED], who is my friend. Then I was furious and called one of them a donkey, trying to refrain from saying bad words, in which I ultimately failed. Then [REDACTED] started calling me a racist, which is untrue. I am tolerant of all races and religions. I admit that I said some not so nice things back, some things I regret, but I was standing up for myself, but I was unable to hold my ground against those kids. Then at the 3rd bus stop, people started to get off, and [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] were telling me to get out of the seat. I refused because I wanted a seat up front. They proceeded to yell "RAPE!" at the top of their lungs as if I were raping them, which I most definitely was not. I eventually forced my way through the aisle and sat with my friend [REDACTED] and I put my head down and cried. My other friends up there were trying to comfort me, but those didn't stop the thoughts of killing myself that I had in my head. And the bus driver, Mr. Dave, heard and saw EVERYTHING, and guess what? He did NOTHING. Apparently, I can't rely on my own bus driver to stop me from literally being tortured. No one else did anything either. Everyone either assisted, ignored, or laughed. [REDACTED] has also been saying unkind things to me when he sits in the front of the bus. He says things like, "You suck/eat dick". I am fully aware that some of these words will get flagged, but I really need to give you the full story. I have shown my mom this email, and she is aware of what happened. I really wish someone would've at least told them to lay off. If my bus driver can't do anything, then why would any of the kids? I hope you all can solve this matter and make the kids be nice to me for once.

Dear Mrs. Gosser,

I just want to let you know that I have been having a problem with [REDACTED]. She keeps coming up to me saying throw the first punch. Also she is telling kids in her math class that she would beat me up and win. Also every time I pass out papers and pass her and [REDACTED] always laughs like she said something. I just always feel threaten by her. Lastly she said one day during study hall that I should be worried after she had said she was going to beat me up. I don't know what to do! I am not that type of person that picks fights beacuse someone tells me too. The person that told me about this was [REDACTED]. He is in millers. I just want to inform you about this.

Thanks,

Hey Mr. Kempf, this morning I woke up to a wonderful Christmas present on my garage saying "fuck pk" the only person I can think of who would want to do that is [REDACTED] he's threatened me before and now I want something done about it, my parents filed a police report already, but I also want him kicked out of school, I'm very angry and this whole situation has caused problems at home, even if you can't do anything I would like a sit down with him and you to talk to him. Attached below is my garage and a threat directly from him to me through my friend. Thank you

Hi Mrs. Schuring,

I apologize for emailing you over break, but this is urgent. Last night, I had a conversation with [REDACTED] and I am fearing for her safety. She told me that for the past few weeks, she has been cutting her legs with a knife. She keeps telling me that she wants to die, and debates every night whether or not to kill herself. I promised her I wouldn't tell anyone, but it is eating me alive on the inside. She said that she would stop and she agreed to let me take you to her office. However, I do not believe that she will fulfill her end of the bargain.

She said that there are a lot of cuts. She says that cutting helps her forget all the memories and the pain. I know this will get flagged and my parents will be called, but I want to help my best friend. I am currently out of town at my grandma's. [REDACTED] terrified of having to go to a mental hospital. Mrs. Schuring, I know you will call her parents and talk to them, but I am begging you to not tell them that I was the one who emailed you. [REDACTED] thinks that I am keeping this a secret, and I can't bear it if she finds out I am the person who told. She has no idea that I am doing this. I fear she will hate me for doing this. I couldn't bear if something were to happen to her, and I feel like a terrible friend for revealing this secret. Please, do whatever you have to do to make sure she is safe. Thank you for all you have done to help her. My apologies for disturbing you over break.

I spoke with both students and their parents. None are a safety issue. The "kill myself" was quoted as what is said to the character by other students in the novel. One girl read it and said she felt like that at her old school because students were mean. She did admit that she doesn't like the way she looks at times but does not want to harm herself. She stated she shares these feelings with friends, mom, and dad.
